MY OLD HOMETOWN

Damn all these streets
Damn all your faces
What I had of good times
Empty spaces

I'm not angry, I'm not mad
I just want to forget you've been there
There's nothing left there
I'm back by contingency do what I do and leave

I get drunk before I'm going back...
I get drunk before I go back to my old hometown

Take it for granted
When I said I'm gonna make it
Time was short
And you wouldn't recognize me

So many got stuck and upon there's a leaf
I'm a stranger
Times have changed and I did not forget
You've been there laughing at me

I get drunk before I'm going back...
I get drunk before I go back to my old hometown

Damn these city lights
Damn this old house
What I had of worried times

So many are gone and upon there's a leaf
And I'm still a stranger
Times, they have changed and I did not forget
How to dream and how to forgive

I get drunk before I'm going back...
I get drunk before I go back to my old hometown
I get drunk before I'm going back...
I get drunk before I go back to my old hometown

NOT A BAD LIFE – JUST A BAD DAY

What is the pay to live without 'em worries?
Would it change? Would it go away?
It is a life that slowly goes by
What did you say? What did you say?

This life's an up and down
This day happening now
Maybe it wasn't made for you
It's not a bad life it's just a bad day
Wait for someone new Start over new

You need to rest, forget the struggle
You need to rest, get off the trouble
Every day you wake and long for what may come
It's been yesterday

This life's an up and down
This day happening now
Maybe it wasn't made for you
It's not a bad life it's just a bad day
So, wait for someone new
To start over new

This life's an up and down
This day happening now
Maybe it wasn't made for you
It's not a bad life it's just a bad day
So, wait for someone new
To start over new

FOLLOW YOU INTO YOUR NIGHTMARE

From where's a chain and a ball
Where there's a cage on a roll
I don't mind no smoke down on the river
Mind no fire in my head
Oh, what did you say?

I cannot hear you shout
But hear the echoes in the willow crying
Cannot hear you scream
I follow you in your nightmare

Compassion, control
Not much more, take control of my soul
Oh Lord, oh would you please
Have mercy on my soul?

I cannot hear you shout
But I can hear you crying in the willow though
I cannot hear you scream
I follow you in your nightmare

Oh, no, no...
Oh, no, no...
Oh, no, no...
Oh, no, no...

And I follow you in your nightmare

HOLD ME

I kind of can't find the words
Trying to explain how much it meant to me
But I can't stand this whole damned silence
All the trying, fade to black

Oh, hold me whiskey
The whole damn smoking
All that backstabbing
One more day

I kind of feel so hollow
The more I'm buying
There ain't no word to say
I hear you whispering through the window from the yard

Back on to the start
One more day

Oh, hold me, hold me dear
My sense for begging hard
Keeping us so low, my heart
One more day

Oh, hold me, hold me dear
My sense for begging hard
Oh, low, my heart
One more day

Oh, hold me, hold me whiskey
The whole damn smoking
All that backstabbing
One more day

Can't feel hollow
My sense for begging hard
Keeping low, my heart
One more day

Keeping low, my heart
One more day

MERMAID

My lady she's a mermaiden a true chimera
Some say a myth from the depth of the sea
Made it to the peer, awful yelling
Deafening screaming and women crying

I was there almost in time
Oh, brothers in arms. Poor brothers of mine

With a bottle of rum in my hand, wait on my friend
While the wind proclaims the message of the sea
Telling us that we'll never see them again
And that my lady is going to take me down as well

So, I kiss my siren hello and she takes me down, down home...

This is why I sing no seafaring songs for my baby
I don't want to drown
This is why I sing no seafaring songs for my baby
I don't want to drown, drown

Down, here in the abyss, the place where she took me to with a kiss
She promised me there'll be nothing that I would miss
Oh, black smokers and glowing fish
What they rule, they call the shots so cruel

Now I'm falling in, I feel like a fool
As I asked her to bring me back to land
She laughed at me and drug me deeper
Holding me by my pale dead hand

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

I woke up like this for so long
Hoping that one day it would change
But this dark melancholic dog won't leave
Keeping my heart lock in chains
In dreams I can smell and I can taste
I can see that certain kind of light reminding me of the good old days

It's hard to spot a drop in a river
While everything would challenge my faith
And one day when I go over Jordan
My tears would wash away all the pain

In dreams I can go back to that place
I can hear your voice and clearly see your face
Longing and fading from life to the grave
Wishing back those good old days

Good to see you found a little luck
Hard to see us gone separate ways
And if there was a God, she would know I lost my heart
Back then in the good old days

When the past comes knocking at my door
Having no news for me
It makes me cry every once in a while
Like the pictures I pretend I didn't want to find

In my dreams I look at myself
And I can see the fire in my eyes like I did in the good old days

Good to know you found a little luck
Still sometimes I feel so alone
And God, she knows well my heaven turned to hell
And burned my heart in the good old days

Nowadays I still wake up like this
I know that nothing's ever gonna change
Some things last a lifetime and they burnt
To my heart and into my soul

In my dreams I can smell and I can taste
I can see that certain kind of light
Hear your voice and clearly see your face
Like I did back then in the good old days

IT IS WHAT IT IS

Accept the misery...
It is what it is right now...

I like it when you sleep
So beautiful you are and yet so unaware of it
We see just what we want
All the words might be the source of all misunderstanding
It is what it is
Fire a gun, blowing a kiss

I like it when you sleep
You're so beautiful and yet so unaware of it
Tell me what it is...
Intense

Lie to me and tell me that you love me
These are the good old days
Now I just sit here in silence
All black everything

Again, like never before
It's not me who's crying now, It's my soul
Feelings sometimes change, memories don't
It is what it is
And darling so it goes
We see just what we want

I cannot explain and I won't even try
No regrets and no requests... Just grind and shine

Lie to me and tell me that you love me
These are the good old days
All black everything
It is what it is
All black everything
All black everything

A ROUGH TIME TO GET OLD

There's a thing now that you should know
I was way beyond and now I'm turning old
I was chasing love and success... Well I've been trying

Living hard now it shows its price
It took all of my heart - It took all of my love

I think my best days are ow (over)
Hanging high and feeling low
Well I think it's a rough time to get old

They wanted me wild, they got me wild
They wanted me sweet, they got me sweet
Now I'm here not knowing who to be

While the drugs they used to work
And it's been a while
They eat my time, they got me wild

Really, the demons I used to call
Well they got me in – They got me in

And I'm here without you
Say did you see it come?
Now I'm here without you
Look at the thing that I've become
The thing that I've become Oh, the thing I have become

FALLEN FOR YOU

You dug me up this grave and I thought I went to heaven
I saw that shining light softly glowing
I thought that I was through and then I met you
You pretty angel spoke to me and crossed my way

You don't know that I have fallen
You don't know that I have fallen for you
Oh, bring me down, oh bring me down. Oh, please won't you?
Your pretty smile and your pretty eyes will bring me down

Begging you to stay but I'm begging you anyway to make it to heaven
Shine and glow...
No time for prayers, there's no time for good and healing words
No time for fire blaze

You don't know that I have fallen
You don't know that I have fallen for you
Oh, bring me down, oh bring me down. Oh, please won't you?
You don't know that I have fallen
You don't know that I have fallen for you
Oh, bring me down, oh bring me down. Oh, please won't you?
Your pretty eyes will bring me down

Time I rather bate but the night I do fall in. To the bottom again
While I ... *#%&$õ30?5Y&←≡L/O
You and I, you know, we could go that very far
But this is no time for crying or even share

You don't know that I have fallen
You don't know that I have fallen for you
Oh, bring me down, oh bring me down. Oh, please won't you?
You don't know that I have fallen
You don't know that I have fallen for you
Oh, bring me down, oh bring me down. Oh, please won't you?
Your pretty eyes will bring me down

EVERYTHING

Walking home now feels like a straight line
Well I've been walking for a long, long time
Now it's the narrow way showing the path
Out of the dark and back to where I've left

I went out on such a detour
Now, I quite forgot who I am
Living a life and looking in the mirror
Knowing it's a lie and I try to see clearer

Coming home to you
Coming home to you
I forgot everything
Cause you let me down

Stumble through days like a messiah
Looking back to all that has vanished
Walk the streets homeless, broken hearted I am
Realizing that nothing is ever going to be lossless

I just didn't take enough care of it
I just let it slither out of sight for a tiny bit
I'll shout it out loud, shout out the truth
Cause words of a liar won't mean a damn thing to you

Coming home to you
Coming home to you
I forgot everything
Don't let me down

I don't dare to shout out loud
I don't dare to cry out loud
Forget everything
Don't let me down

I don't know anything...

THE WORDS I SAY TO YOU

It took a lot of time to gather all the words I'm saying to you
It takes a lot of guts to separate the hollow from the true
It feels like running late when you're catching a train standing on the empty track
Desperation feeding my heart I am eager to know this time won't come back

Imagine letting go and someday settle down and build a home
Saying everything is fine
There were days you told me you would love me forever and ever
And still I wish it was true

It took a lot of strength, lost it on the way running for my will
It takes a lot of conscience, takes a lot of patience, takes a lot of care
To know it's not a bad world, knowing it's a cold world, focus on the good word
Try to stay humble even when I stumbled upon too many apologies

Imagine saying all the things you would have said long time ago and...
Without feeling any shame
And there were days you loved me and I loved you, said that I hold you and...
Oh, how I wish it was true
So many I've kissed and made love with, woke up at their sides and...
Still I wish it was you

Standing here and I am saying the things I should have said back then
I'm not feeling any shame
I thought that it would last forever and ever, till death do us part and...
How I wish that it was true

How I wish that it was true

HOW I GO ON (MY FAVORITE STAR)

I hold on
Looking at the whole world stealing
I hold on
Never mind the lonely feeling

No one here would know my name
Waiting on my favorite star
I can say I'm alright

I go on
Never mind the heavy breathing
For so long
You do not need to know how I feel so I say I'm alright

No one here would catch me falling
Looking for my favorite star
To make sure I'm alright

I'm afraid
No one loves me like you did
Won't steal it
Even though it hurts me so bad I say I'm alright

Never mind the wounds aren't healing
Even though my heart is bleeding
I'll say I'm alright

Even though my heart is bleeding
I'll say I'm alright

HARVEST

This soil, time's gonna move it there ain't no friction
No rule, no plan, no fiction
There ain't no such addiction

This day is done by the rain and water
All turning colder
And I thought it is just...

Like this September, November ...
As you told me. This will last forever, forever, forever...
No bad intention, no redemption
That's what they told you to make you believe
When you bring this harvest home
No sleeping well, no sleeping good

Sometimes we all realize that it's not right, still we want that
And we don't wanna let it go
Cause we've been holding on it for too long

And we try to justify that everything has been contaminated
And nothing's going to be better than the way we made it
And tomorrow's only evil...

Like this September, November ...
As you told me, this will last forever, forever, forever...
No bad intention, no redemption
That's what they told you to make you believe
When you bring this harvest home
No sleeping well, no sleeping good

And I thought that it is...

Like this September, October, November
All going on in misery and it started up from January
Don't like that, don't want that, don't see that Make me believe!
Gonna last forever, forever, forever...

Like this September, November ...
When you told me, this will last forever
What they told you to make me believe
No redemption, no bad intention
No sleeping well, no sleeping good, no sleep at all

ROCKET THROUGH A STORM

As easy as it sounds, I won't believe a word
Many tried before and most of them got lost on this trail
They thought they could just play it
They could just beat the rap

I know that loving a woman is as easy as flying a rocket
A rocket through a storm
Sometimes she won't believe you even if you scream
Scream at the top, at the top of your lungs
I know that loving a woman is as easy as walking on the Seas
And breathe under water
I know that sometimes it's easy like moving a whole mountain
Or as easy as holding a cloud with nothing but your hands

As easy as reading a code, or as easy as driving blind
No matter what you do, don't get stuck in these questions of doom
Oh, there is something that makes her blue
(Why must you steal my heart away?)

I know that loving a woman is as easy as flying a rocket
A rocket through a storm
Sometimes she won't believe you even if you scream
Scream at the top, at the top of your lungs
I know that loving a woman is as easy as walking on the Seas
Or breathe under water
Sometimes it's easy like moving a whole mountain
Or as easy as catching a cloud with nothing but your hands

ME AND A DRINK

Take me too far off the land
Where I miss the shady lights of corner streets
I won't dare to cry but I feel like I'm beaten down
By the feels and its needs

To know is to believe and I believe that I would know it
At least when I'm dry or cold

I don't dare to think of you
My heart is fragile and sometime brighter blue
Sometimes I'd like to kill you, sometimes I want to kiss you
Maybe I just need to

So, I hide under cover to cover up the lies
As the truth is hidden in our bed

How I want to forget you
This damn silence that I did get so wrong
Misery is coming with the day light
You don't know... I'll make it out...

Just me and a drink

I know you cannot hear me
You're out doing your night's downtown
I'm already late but somehow, I cannot leave
I'm tired and cuffed down

To know is to believe and I believe that I would know it
At least when the rain cleaned me out

I know and I believe. I believe that you don't know it
At least when you see a little clearer

How I want to forget you
The silence that breaks us in two
That got me so mad, no word you said!
My heart was screaming and begging, yelling for the truth

Me and a drink

STARE AT YOU

Staring at the cold neon light
Roll my eyes to the ground
Stay the day or stay the night
Don't hang around to stay around

And I stare at you
While I stare at you one last time
And you stare at me, staring, staring...
Staring at me one last time
But I got cold
But we got weak

Let us save this time is short, my dear
Don't you know when it's gone, it's gone
Left down there, left down here
Savior time, save your time

And you stare at me
Stare and stare at me one last time
And I stare at you
Staring, staring, staring at you one last time
But we got cold
And we got weak

Daze and fly on by oh neon light
Saying bye oh bye my sweetest pride
And I leave this city for this
Leave the city for, delight

And you stare at me
Staring, stare, staring at me one last time
And I would stare at you
Stare and stare, stare at you one last time
But we got cold
And we got weak
And we got cold
And we got weak
